In order to be nominated, the player must be able to travel to Columbus, Ohio; leaving Thursday, June 14 and returning Monday, June 18.

The IHSSBCA will pay for the tournament entry fee and the coaches' costs, and will make travel arrangements. Will the player, his/her family, or his/her school (or some combination thereof) be able to pay for the student's travel costs, hotel costs, and food?       Yes       No

On an additional sheet, please provide the following information. Keep total responses to no more than two single-sided sheets of letter-size paper or the equivalent (one double-sided sheet, etc.).

- Give the player's strongest subjects in the context of Scholastic Bowl/quizbowl.
- List the AP/IB courses, courses taken at colleges, or other college-level coursework the player will have completed by June 14, 2012.
- Give objective measures of the player's Scholastic Bowl/quizbowl performance. This should include individual statistics from as many tournaments as possible, team performance at tournaments, conference results (individual and team), and other relevant data directly obtained from Scholastic Bowl and/or quizbowl competitions.
- List any other significant awards, honors, or recognitions the player has received.
- Discuss the player's ability to function as part of a team. (This can be written by the player himself/herself, his/her coach, his/her teammates, or anyone else with direct, relevant knowledge.)
- Provide a statement from the player discussing why he/she is qualified to be on Team Illinois.
- Optionally, the player's coach (or any other coach) may provide a statement of endorsement.

The Team Illinois selection committee will select four players to comprise the team it feels is best suited, as a whole, to do as well as possible at the National All-Star Academic Tournament. As such, highly qualified players may not make the team.

Do not attach résumés, transcripts, or other additional documentation; any such material will be ignored.
